

Dr. L. Marinos, Short CV

Dr. L. Marinos: Currently acting Head of ENISA Technical Department, senior expert at ENISA in the area of Risk Management with over 15 years of experience in the management and operation of security and the coordination of European expert groups. His expertise is on:

- Risk analysis, Risk Management and business continuity planning
- Emerging and Future Risks
- Security management of critical applications in the areas of financial institutions and B2B
- Specification of security mechanisms for card based systems
- Implementation of security mechanisms
- Society issues of information security
- Systems security with focus on Internet security, security in large networks for telecommunication, security in banking applications and operating systems
- Security standards with focus on the registration of a Protection Profile according the international security standard „Common Criteria“ for a German banking Group, Co-author of the security part of CEN/TC 224 - ISO/TC 68/SC 6
- Strategic consulting of major firms in the financial, telecommunication and commercial sectors

Photo:

